

PUNJAB CURRICULUM AND TEXTBOOK BOARD, LAHORE

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (EOI)

For Development of Textbooks in accordance with PCTB Curriculum-2021 for Academic Session 2022-23 as per "The Punjab Curriculum and Textbook Board (Development of Textbook and Supplementary Reading Material through a Person or Agency) Regulations-2021"

The Government of the Punjab has declared the teaching of Holy Quran as Separate Compulsory Subject under the "Punjab Compulsory Teaching of Holy Quran (Amendment) Act-2021." The Punjab Curriculum and Textbook Board (PCTB) has developed the Curriculum of "Naazrah Quran for Grades I-V" and "Translation of the Holy Quran for Grades VI-XII" under which the PCTB intends to get the manuscripts of following textbooks developed through registered authors, editors, persons or agencies for the Academic Session 2022-23 as per "The Punjab Curriculum and Textbook Board (Development of Textbook and Supplementary Reading Material through a Person or Agency) Regulations-2021." After clearance by the "Punjab Quran Board" and "Muttahida Ulema Board, Punjab" and after approval by the PCTB, the "Best Manuscripts" for each Grade will be selected by the Special Committee of the Board for Public Sector Schools.

The registered developers shall ensure that every page of the manuscript bears the indication given in the Schedule Section 5(4)(c) as mentioned in "The Punjab Holy Quran (Printing and Recording) Act, 2011". It shall also be ensured that the submitted manuscript "Translation of the Holy Quran (Urdu Medium)" is free of error and according to the standardized manuscript of Anjuman-e-Himayat-e-Islam which is approved under LIC of 1973 Act, Government of Pakistan. It is further added that the developers of the said manuscripts shall be registered with Government of the Punjab, Auqaf and Religious Affairs Department under Rule 6 of the Notification No. SO(IBM)1-1/2020 dated 18.08.2010.
